EXTENSION – HOST LIQUOR LIABILITY

In consideration of an additional premium as stated in the Declarations it is agreed that the insurance does apply to bodily injury or property damage arising out of the selling, serving or giving of any alcoholic beverage at or from the insured premises, subject to the following additional provisions:

1. The insurance does not apply to bodily injury or property damage arising out of any alcoholic beverage sold, served or given while any licence therefore, required by law, is suspended or after such licence expires, is cancelled or revoked.
2. With respect to bodily injury or property damage to which this endorsement applies, the limit of liability is as stated in the Declarations for this policy.

The limit in this endorsement does not operate to increase the limits of the Insurer's liability stated in the Declarations of the policy.

For the purposes of determining the limit of the Insurer's liability, all damages sustained by one or more persons as the result of the selling, serving or giving of any alcoholic beverage to any one persons shall be considered as arising out of one occurrence as regards bodily injury liability and one accident as regards property damage liability.

3. The insurance afforded by this endorsement does not apply to bodily injury or property damage with respect to which insurance is otherwise afforded by, or would be afforded but for the exhaustion of the limits of, the policy.
